Forty-ninth Annual Announcement . . .

The Fort Wayne Woman's Club

Organized March 7, 1925

CLUB HOUSE

402 West Wayne Street

Telephone 422-2002

Mrs. Walter Lorenz----- Executive Secretary

The President's Message

My dear friends,

It does seem unbelievable that one year of my two year tenure has passed. I have enjoyed this past year very much, and I'm looking forward to this next year with great expectation.

We have increased our program budget considerably, enabling us to present outstanding lectures every Thursday morning. These lectures develop a better understanding of our world. The complexities of the world problems seem virtually endless; thus the opportunity for broadening one's acquaintanceship with them is unlimited.

A club belongs to its members, all of them. Therefore, responsibility for the health, growth, and general welfare of the club is shared by all members and does not rest solely with the officers.

Sincerely,

NAN A. GAYLORD

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(Right hand over heart, standing at attention)

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART

Who's Who on Our Program

BRIAN L. BEX

Brian L. Bex, at age 23, began the American Communications Network, publishers of the Brian Bex Report, today the largest privately circulated report in the country, having a monthly international distribution in excess of two and one-half million copies.

Mr. Bex presents a logical, non-emotional, positive approach to the American private enterprise system. Without political orientation, he has been able to reach millions of Americans with his most vital message.

ROGER CONKLIN

"The Ambassador of Inner Space" captivates audiences with his fascinating tales of the world beneath the sea. Mr. Conklin is almost as well known abroad as he is at home through his numerous magazine and newspaper articles. He has appeared frequently as the guest of Jack Parr, Johnny Carson, and Mike Douglas.

As director of public relations for the famous Seaquarium in Miami for ten years, this renowned naturalist has amassed a wealth of experience and notoriety in his field. He tells of the rich and varied treasures of the ocean depths and how they can transform our planet and our environment.

LYLE M. CRIST

A Professor of English at Mount Union College, he draws upon more than twenty years of teaching in high school and a large university. Communication is Crist's basic theme. In his program he uses poetry but just as often incorporates ambiguities, classroom boners, and unintended hilarity from the mass media.

His book, "Man Expressed: The Realm of Writing," published in 1971 is used in colleges throughout the United States. Currently he does a weekly radio show "One Prof's Point of View."

ROBERT DAVIS

Imaginative photographer, accomplished narrator, guide and film producer—he superbly edits each film to produce a memorable experience: informing, entertaining, and stimulating.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis return again with "Britain's Holiday Islands." This beautiful travel-documentary film includes the Isle of Wight, The Channel Islands (Guernsey, Sark, Jethou, Jersey), Isle of Man and Isle of Skye.

GLORIA BRAGGIOTTI ETING

Her acquaintance with famous and beautiful people the world over and visits to places, islands, castles and villas off the beaten track provide the background for personalized and unique travel talks, especially enhanced by her own color slides.

Born in Florence, Italy, her activities have covered two continents. She has had careers in dancing, society columnist on the New York Evening Journal, and fashion editor of the New York Post.

Her first book, "Born in a Crowd," has been turned into a musical by her brother Mario, well-known concert pianist and composer.

GERTRUDE FAGAN

Dr. Fagan is Director of Women's and Out-State Programs and Associate Professor of Education at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. She received her education at Lawrence College, University of Chicago, and Syracuse University.

Gain new personal in-sights and discover new ways to make your future productive and exciting. Set realistic goals for a more satisfying future.

FIGLIO DE HENRIQUEZ

A Superb artist whose works have been shown in many of the art centers of the world, she was born in Trieste and trained at the Academy of Fine Arts in Venice under Maestro Auturo Martini. Fiore has created many sculptures for public monuments in Italy, England, Ireland and the United States. Now a British citizen, Fiore divides her time between a studio in London and a school on the outskirts of Florence, Italy, which she founded and operates.

As she demonstrates her superb artistry by creating a sculpture before her audience, she talks of the joys of sculpture, its place in modern life, its traditions, the great masters and the meaning they have for us today.

CELESTE HOLM

In an exciting performance which combines all of her talents as an actress in comedy, drama and musicals, Celeste Holm presents a song-and story program which will also include a lively exchange with her audience.

She challenges classification more, perhaps, than any other star, for success has come to Miss Holm on the musical stage, in light comedy, in serious drama. Who can forget her legendary portrait of lusty, light-hearted Ado Annie in "Oklahoma" or her Academy Award performance in "Gentlemen's Agreement."

•

BARBARA HUTMACHER

Have Over-Land Stage trunk-will travel thru a Century of Fashion for our special Christmas Program. Facts, artifacts and fiction are combined with visual display of authentic necessities and niceties of fashion from 1850 to 1950. Bustles of old wire construction to exquisite plumed and hand painted fans explains the variety of contents of Barbara's fabulous trunk.

Now Fashion Merchandising Coordinator for International Junior College, Barbara formerly was with Hutners and L.S. Ayres.

MADHUR JAFFREY

Born in India and educated at Delhi University, where she was an English literature major, Miss Jaffrey studied for the theatre at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London, played several seasons there in television and on the stage. She starred in India in the Film Festival and was awarded a Silver Bear at the Berlin Film Festival as the best actress. In addition to her acting career, she is a free lance writer contributing to newspapers and magazines, a gourmet cook who has just completed a cookbook.

Drawing from her own knowledge and background in the East and the West, she regales her audiences with interesting stories and facts about entertaining, cooking and social customs throughout the world.

•

ARMIN C. OLDSEN

Reverend Oldsen was so well received by our members last year that we have asked him to return for our Lenten Program.

Receiving his masters in Psychology-Sociology from Western Reserve University, Cleveland, the Rev. Oldsen was ordained in 1936 to the Lutheran ministry. He has been instructor and counselor at Valparaiso University, director of Religious Education and Public Relations at Concordia High School, and instructor of student nurses at Lutheran Hospital. •

FRED WARSHOFSKY

Scientific advances and discoveries — such as computers, research into the very processes of life, and lately, the increasing inroads mankind is making on his environment by polluting his planet — generally have the effect of making most non-scientific people feel a little queasy when they hear about them.

Fred Warshofsky enlightens layman audiences about the latest developments in the world of science making the subject not only interesting but attractive and occasionally even glamorous.

Mr. Warshofsky is best known as the science editor and chief writer of the lucid and exciting CBS TV series "21st Century" which won the coveted Emmy Award.

•

SIR JOHN WEDGWOOD

Sir John Wedgwood is one of the rare people in the world today who have continued a family tradition and kept its name a shining example of artistic excellence.

Since the Nineteen Thirties until very recently, he directed the famous ware business that was begun by his celebrated ancestor, Josiah Wedgwood (1730-1795). Under Sir John's direction, the company's volume of sales increased many-fold.

Educated at Winchester College and Cambridge University in England, he is recognized as an authority in the field of interior decoration in the 18th century.

•

MARY JANE WELLS

A brilliant young actress will perform her one-woman show, "Pride and Prejudice." Beginning with the famous epigram, "It is a truth universally acknowledged that a single man in possession of a good fortune must be in want of a wife," Miss Wells' adaptation of Jane Austen's classic novel about love and marriage tells the story of the Bennets — their worldly trials and personal foibles. In the course of the presentation, she portrays nine women.

Miss Wells theatrical credits include the Lincoln Center Repertory Theatre, Brandeis University Resident Theatre, the National Shakespeare Company and various Shakespeare festivals as well as work in the contemporary and commercial theatre.

JENNY BELL WHYTE

Mrs. Whyte takes her audience on a safari of the fashion world, discussing fashion's influence on contemporary life and its reflection of the restlessness of our times. She discusses the fashions of the day, expressing her own view that women should dress to suit themselves, and with mature taste, imagination and experience can adapt the fashions of today to their own individuality.

Jenny Bell Whyte is currently having a love affair with antique fabrics acquired from museums all over the world and fashioned into skirts on the theory that these lovely "Museum Pieces" should be seen, used, and appreciated.

ANNUAL REPORT OF AMERICAN HOME DEPARTMENT

The American Home Department opened its club year with a Buffet Luncheon and Bridge on October 24th, 1972.

Our sponsored day, February 1st, 1973, featured Mr. Wm. Sowers, Vice President & Trust Officer of the Ft. Wayne National Bank, who spoke to us on Wills & Trusts.

Our Annual Meeting was held February 24th, 1973, and featured a hobby and talent show, also a Bake Sale, and Style Show of dresses made by our members. The Bake Sale netted $19.15, which was turned into the general club project fund.

Our Department sponsored a Bus Trip to Long Grove, Ill, two bus loads made this trip.

We were responsible for the hostesses at the Christmas Luncheon and actively participated in all of the General Club activities.

We joined all the other Departments in donating our Philanthropy Fund of $25.00 to the Sol Wood Home Special Projects Fund.

Three new members were welcomed to our department and three were re-instated. Three members were transferred from Active to Absentee Membership and two were lost by death. Eight members resigned.

BOOK AND TRAVEL DEPARTMENT ANNUAL REPORT

1972-73

The club year opened with our sponsored day November 2. Mrs. and Mrs. Wilson D. Criswell presented a film program on "Around the World." Our smorgasbord luncheon was November 21. Mrs. Leonard Saylor presented the program "Tudor Rose."

Our Department was in charge of the invocation for the Christmas luncheon.

February 20 was our luncheon and Annual Meeting with bridge after the meeting. Following the April 5 general club meeting, Book and Travel Department sponsored the bridge which followed the luncheon.

Book and Travel Department participated in all general club projects during the year. We joined the other departments to give a check to Sol Wood Home as the departments' philanthropic contribution.

We welcomed ten new members and one transfer from absentee to active membership.

ANNUAL REPORT OF CIVIC DEPARTMENT 1972-1973

The Civic Department opened its club year with a Luncheon and Bridge. The Civic Department sponsored a One-Day Shopping Spree to Chicago, December 11th.

Our department planned the menu for the Christmas luncheon.

Our annual meeting was January 16th. Our speaker was Ruth H. Lane. Her topic was "What's in it for me in 73."

For our Sponsored Day, we presented Mr. Raymond J. Fried, Director of Fort Wayne Art Museum.

Mrs. Charmaine Bauer and Dr. Steve Coburn spoke on Mental Retardation at our April 24th luncheon.

Our Philanthropic project was a joint project with all other Departments. The contribution was given to the Wood Youth Center.

We welcomed four new members during the year.

HOUSE & GARDEN DEPARTMENT

ANNUAL REPORT 1972-1973

The House and Garden Department attended the opening reception for the Fort Wayne Woman's Club.

During the year we sponsored four parties. November our Harvest Luncheon, January our evening party, February was our sponsor day, and March our annual meeting and new officers were elected.

The Wood Youth Center was our project and we collected 14 boxes of used clothing, magazines, games, etc. New materials were given to them for the girls new Home Economics room. Twenty-five dollars was given for our Philanthropic monies to the Center.

The department served as chairman for the Club's Annual Christmas Luncheon in December.

We welcomed four new members and reinstated one this past year.

LITERATURE AND EDUCATION DEPARTMENT ANNUAL REPORT 1972-1973

The Literature and Education Department opened it's Club Year with a Brunch, October 31st. Mrs. N.L. Salon told us why "Dolls are no longer Child's Play."

Our Department was in charge of the decorations for the Christmas Luncheon.

We sponsored Mr. Max Hobbs, January 18th. His topic was a "Historical Trip Through Indiana." Bridge followed the luncheon.

Our annual meeting was a luncheon on January 30th. New officers were elected. A book review was given by Mrs. Clyde Reed.

The last Departmental Luncheon was March 6th. Mrs. Alan Grinsfelder's topic was "Women and Their Dollars."

This year all departments' philanthropic contributions were consolidated into one gift to the Wood Youth Center. We also sponsored a one-day trip to the Toledo Museum and participated in the Christmas Boutique.

Seven new members were welcomed into our Department, four members resigned and we lost one member by death.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JUNIOR DEPARTMENT 1972-1973

The Junior Department began its Club year on October 24 with Mrs. Wm. Kunkel III presenting the program on fashion. The program was followed by crazy bridge.

On December 16 we sponsored a Christmas dance, preceded by pre-dance parties in the homes of our department members. Even though this was not intended as a money-making project for the Club, we netted the Club $218.07.

The Department Sponsored Day was held February 15 with Mr. Robert Weber, President of ACRES, Inc., speaking on the Fox Island project and illustrating his talk with slides.

Our Annual Meeting was held on February 20 with Mr. Tom Adams presenting a program on furniture.

Mrs. Nathan Salon presented a delightful program for our luncheon meeting on March 13. Her topic was "Mocking the Muse."

Our department, again this year, sponsored the Monte Carlo Nite on March 17. Due to the weather, this money-making project was not the success we had hoped, but we did net $85.00.

The Junior Department voted to have the $25.00 contribution to philanthropy turned over to the Club's Philanthropy Chairman to dispose of as she sees fit.

During the year we welcomed seven new members into our department, and lost one member by death.

Mrs. Robert Criswell, Chairman

Reports of Chairman & Officers

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY

1972-1973

Under the enthusiastic leadership of Mrs. William Gaylord, the Fort Wayne Woman's Club has successfully completed its 48th year.

The Board meetings have been well attended with good participation in the discussions. Ten members have had perfect attendance.

Mrs. Richard Goshorn and her program committee arranged for a wide variety of stimulating programs in the categories of art, music, drama, religion, world events, travel, poetry, ecology, finance, decorating, history and human events.

Through a generous donation from one of our Club members to alleviate noise in the dining room, carpeting and pull draperies were installed. The Furnishings Committee also arranged for painting of the kitchen and pantry. Washing and polishing in order to keep our Club looking nice has been the task ably performed by the House Committee. In addition to purchasing a new hot water heater and a new freezer, the Trustees have made numerous repairs through the year.

With the help of the department chairmen, a number of interesting and fun-filled trips were planned by the Projects Committee, including the following: Toledo Museum, Toledo, Ohio; Bavarian Village, Frankenmuth, Michigan; Christmas shopping spree in Chicago; Long Grove, Illinois; and New Orleans, Louisiana. A very successful Christmas boutique was supported by all departments.

A lovely Christmas Ball was sponsored by the hard-working Junior Department in addition to the annual Monte Carlo Night.

The departments contributed to the Wood Youth Center as a joint philanthropic project. A contribution was also made to the Needlework Guild.

A variety of classes were offered this year—Yoga, choral singing, decoupage, sewing and gourmet cooking.

A number of minor revisions have been made in the By-laws, and one that Club members should especially note, is the revision permitting members to sponsor or endorse any number of personal friends for membership during the year. Other revisions will appear in the new yearbook.
